Putting on the Brakes

Rev. M. A. Banker's Talk to Men at the Courthouse Yesterday

At the men's meeting yesterday afternoon at the Courthouse, the Rev. M. A. Banker, Pastor of the Third Street M. E. Church, delivered the following address entitled "Putting on the Brakes!"

"A brake is a very useful article; in fact, it is a necessity. The giant locomotive with its seventy or hundred freight cars sliding over the gliding rails at a great speed, suddenly the brave engineer discovers danger ahead and whistles 'down brakes' and every brakeman rushes to his post and with heroic efforts succeeds in stopping the train as the engine stands on the edge of danger and disaster. We are traveling on the rail of life, and every human engine needs to apply the brakes to avoid disaster. We are rushing at pell-mell speed over the rails, oblivious to danger, stretching every nerve, reaching forth every power within us to achieve the tinsel toys of this life. It is well in this strenuous age for men to apply the brakes—pause, consider, meditate. A young man once wrote a friend, 'I guess I have struck the toboggan slide.' Back came the answer, 'In the name of Jesus Christ, put on the brakes!'

Men, you are built for high things; not for mud and muck and mire. God has given you the power to make the very best of the stuff that is in you. Are you doing it? If not, I wish that we might notice a few of the brakes that might be applied to your life's race in order to make it a success for time and eternity. There is first of all the

THE BRAKE OF SINCERITY.

"What J. B. Gough wrote across the face of a young lady's autograph album, you will need to write across the face of your life—'Be Sincere.' Sham battles don't kill; sham characters don't count. Cheap prints fade; cheap colors run. Flat money doesn't go with men; flat manhood does not go with God. The ring of metal tells the counterfeit; so the ring of the man. Shoddy clothes bag at the knees. Too many characters, like too many buildings, are 'Queen Ann' in front and 'Mary Ann' behind. Be sincere. Be genuine. Be yourself. Don't try to fool people. You can only fool one person, yourself. Honesty is not the best policy, but the best principle. 'Oh, God, make me real,' prayed a young man. You will need to pray that prayer often.

BRAKE OF CONVICTIONS.

"Believe something; know something; know what you believe. The credulous man is a dangerous man. Don't be a jelly fish. Have convictions. Stand for something. Of all complexions the 'dough face' is the worst. The city directories say there are more 'Smiths' in the world than any other people. There are more 'Me too's' people who don't stand for anything. Ciphers. Don't be a thing. Be a man.

BRAKE OF SELF-MASTERY.

"Self-mastery, self-denial, submission are words in the vocabulary of Kings. In ourselves is victory or defeat. No man is such a conqueror as the man who has defeated self. A little boy made a great discovery one day. He went to his mother with delight and said: 'Mamma, I don't have to cry when I fall down. I can make myself stop. I say stop that, and then I make me mind me.' That child had found the secret of self-mastery. Make yourself mind yourself. 'Whoever overcomes himself treads the world under foot.'

BRAKE OF DETERMINATION.

"No will, no way. Takes a will to make a way. Of the four-fourths of any life will is a big quarter. The decisive factor of life is in our own will. 'I will' lifts men above the universe; it binds man to God. Like a postage stamp, a man's value depends on his ability to stick to a thing. Some one says that General Grant was defeated five times, but didn't have sense enough to know it. Have that kind of sense.

BRAKE OF COURAGE.

"Here is where men fail. Lack of courage, lack of success. Cowards are traitors to convictions. Courage is the Godlike in man. Courage is the word. A brave man! He can do most anything. He can do more good under the banner of Christ than anywhere else. Men, you pride yourselves on being brave; which side are you on? I heard of an old veteran of Gettysburg who took his nephew to see the cyclorama of that battle. As the boy was looking on the scene he said, 'Uncle, where were you in the battle?' 'Now, right over there was one of the fiercest engagements.' 'But,' said the nephew, 'I would enjoy it so much better if I just knew where you were.' The old uncle said, 'Right over there one Captain had the third horse shot under him.' 'Yes, uncle, but where are you in the picture?' His old uncle replied, 'Nephew, can't you hush? I was back of that tree over in the rear end of that cornfield.' When the cyclorama of the universe is shown up there are many that won't be in it.

PUR FIRST THING FIRST.

"Don't mix values. Don't mistake dollars for deeds, nor wealth for worth, nor money for manhood. What a man is, not what a man has, is the great question. Better be rich in God than to be rich in gold. Don't get it into your head that the great thing is to wear a diamond; the great thing is to be a diamond. There are two great words, being and doing, but the greater of these is being. 'Be.' You have your choice. Don't lose yours. Don't let the stars drop from your crown. You are meant for a throne. Get it.

AFTER all the "fuss and feathers" over the Beef Trust, the Government officials have made an exhaustive report, a summary of which is printed elsewhere in this impression of THE LEDGER. From this it appears that the cattle-raisers—the farmers if you please—were largely responsible for the recent high prices of beef to the consumers. They seem to have gotten the lion's share of the advance, and it is now in order for the rich consumer working for $1 a day to call the poor oppressed cattle-raiser to account.

But, read the report and judge for yourself.

THE Goody-Goods are making much ado over the big religious awakening in Louisville, claiming that 40,000 persons attended the meetings daily and that there were over 4,000 "conversions." Now, to say nothing of the 40,000 daily attendants, the 4,000 converts can work a complete revolution in the political and social morals of that city if they are earnest. The character of the next municipal administration in that crime-ridden but beautiful metropolis will show just how much real good the great revival has accomplished.

United States. The ceremonies proper were brief and impressive and the parade exceeded all previous ones in point of numbers and in unique attractions. It is estimated that 200,000 visitors were attracted to Washington. The festivities of the day closed with the inaugural ball at the Pension Building and a display of fireworks. A feature of the ball was the presence of a trained orchestra of 500 voices. The exhibition of fireworks was the most elaborate ever seen at the National Capital.

General Kuropatkin, in a telegram which arrived at St. Petersburg at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, said 260,000 Japanese had broken through the Russian left wing and that it was cut off from the remainder of the army. At 10 o'clock came another dispatch from General Kuropatkin, which read: "The Japanese are marching on Mukden. My position is extremely dangerous." In Government circles at St. Petersburg there is a conviction that General Kuropatkin has been fully beaten; that part of his army has been dispersed, and that the railroad North of Mukden will probably be cut. The losses so far in the tremendous battle are said to be 40,000 for the Russians and 30,000 for the Japanese.

There is talk of establishing an ice harbor at Cincinnati to prevent ice-break-up disasters. J. F. Ellison estimates the cost of such a harbor at $10,000,000, and, as the past two winters have been the most disastrous in the history of the stream, and as no fixed time could be set for boats to go into winter quarters, the idea is looked upon by river craft owners as impracticable and unfeasible.

TIME IS THE TEST.

The Testimony of Maysville People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon find out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time.

Maysville people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly indorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? A cure that lasts is the kind that every sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

W. H. Paul, carpenter by trade, living at 333 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I value Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as I did when I first used them in 1890. I got a box then and used it for pain in my back and other evidences of a disordered condition of the kidneys which had given me much trouble for two years or more. This remedy acted promptly and I was soon cured. I did not notice any of the difficulties until some four years later, or about a year ago. I again procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore and all symptoms of the trouble were quickly and thoroughly removed. Since then I have not noticed any signs of trouble of any kind arising from my back or kidneys. I most cheerfully re-indorse Doan's Kidney Pills, for they are certainly worthy of recommendation."

THE TURN OF LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases—Intelligent Women Prepare for It. Two Relate their Experience.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain.

When her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy, or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active—and with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden. At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

These symptoms are all just so many calls from nature for help. The nerves are crying out for assistance and the cry should be heeded in time.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life. It invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system. It has carried thousands of women safely through this crisis.

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and it will be furnished absolutely free of charge.

Read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

Mrs. A.E.G. Hyland

"I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me and I have passed safely through the Change of Life, a well woman. I am recommending your medicine to all my friends."—Mrs. Annie E. G. Hyland, Chester-town, Md.

Another Woman's Case.

"During change of life words cannot express what I suffered. My physician said I had a cancerous condition of the womb. One day I read some of the testimonials of women who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I decided to try it and to write you for advice. Your medicine made me a well woman, and all my bad symptoms soon disappeared."

"I advise every woman at this period of life to take your medicine and write you for advice."—Mrs. Lizzie Hinkle, Salem, Ind.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle it will do for any woman at this time of life.

It has conquered pain, restored health, and prolonged life in cases that utterly baffled physicians.

BROUGHT RESULTS

An Item in The Ledger Finds a Young Woman's Father

Cincinnati Times-Star.

Several days ago Miss May McElfresh, who left her home in Maysville five years ago, asked The Times-Star to locate her father, Wesley McElfresh, who had also moved from Maysville several years ago. A brief item telling of the girl's efforts to locate her father was published. Saturday The Times-Star received a letter supposedly from Wesley McElfresh, stating he is now living at Foxport, Fleming county.

And the brief item mentioned above was republished in Thursday's LEDGER of last week and read by one of the many readers of the paper at Foxport, who no doubt put himself in communication with the Cincinnati paper. The LEDGER is willing to divide honors with The Times-Star, however, as both had a finger in the pie.

In republishing the item THE LEDGER said it would bring gratifying results, and according to the above it delivered the goods.

Now is the time to advertise.

Who Got the Benefit?

Looks Like the Cattle-Raisers
Got More Than the Beef Trust

President Roosevelt has transmitted to Congress the report of Commissioner of Corporations Garfield upon the beef industry, in substance as follows:

That six packing companies—Armour & Company, Swift & Company, Morris & Company, the National Packing Company, the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger Company and the Cudahy Packing Company—frequently designated in the trade as "The Big Six," slaughtered in the year 1903, 5,521,697 head of cattle out of a total indicated slaughter in the United States of 12,500,000 head, or about 45%.

That the true average net profit for three companies—the Armour, Swift and Schwarzschild & Sulzberger—for the twelve months ending June 30th, 1903, as shown by their actual bookkeeping records, was 99 cents per head, not including incidental profits mentioned below.

That the year 1902, instead of being one of exorbitant profits, as has been commonly supposed, was less profitable than usual. The report says, in fact, that during the months when prices of beef were the highest, some, at least, of the leading packers were actually losing money on every head of cattle slaughtered.

That the changes in the margin between the prices of cattle and the prices of beef are in themselves no indication whatever of the changes in the net profits of the beef business.

That the margin between the price of cattle and the price of beef during the year 1903, instead of being unusually high, as popularly supposed, was for each half of that year lower than the margin for any corresponding half year since 1898 and that the increase in the margin for the second half of 1903 over the first half was no greater than the similar change in other years. An average margin covering total killings of cattle by most of the packing houses in five leading Western markets and sales of beef at 24 cities having a total population of about 10,000,000 persons was $2.81 per hundred weight for January to June, 1902; $2.83 for July to December, 1902; $2.14 for January to June, 1903; $2.41 for the second half of 1903 and $2.33 for the first half of 1904.

That conditions in 1902 were abnormal and that cattle prices for 1903 and 1904 cannot fairly be compared with that year. The great prosperity of the country from 1899 to 1902 apparently led to a considerable increase in the per capita consumption of beef. The practical failure of the corn crop of 1901 induced many cattle feeders to send their stock to market in poor condition, thus reducing the average weight per head and the average percentage of dressed beef to live weight. As a result, while the total number of cattle slaughtered in five leading Western packing centers during the first half of 1902 decreased only about 1.1% as compared with the first half of 1901 the total live weight of the cattle slaughtered is computed to have decreased 4.3% and the computed dressed weight decreased considerably more. In this connection the report says—

"In the face of the strong demand, the price of cattle was forced to the highest level ever known. The high prices of beef, which caused so much complaint among consumers at this time, were attributable wholly to these abnormal prices."

That in 1902 the price of cattle fell very sharply, chiefly because of a large increase in the supply. The number of cattle killed in five leading Western markets during the first half of 1903 was more than 15% greater than during the first half of 1902 and on account of the increased size of cattle the quantity of beef produced increased 22%.

In the second half of 1903 the quantity of beef derived from cattle killed at the same market was about 10% greater than in the corresponding period of 1902. Under these conditions the price of beef, instead of remaining at the high level of 1902, fell during 1903 by a larger absolute amount and by about the same percentage as the price of cattle.

That the six leading packing companies especially discussed are apparently not over-capitalized.

That the percentage of profit on the gross volume of business is comparatively small. In the case of Swift & Company during the three years 1902, 1903 and 1904, the profits have in no case exceeded 2% of the total sales. In the case of the Cudahy Packing Company for 1904 the net profit was 1.8% of the total sales, in 1902 it was 2.3%.

That the profit of private car lines in the packing industry on mileage is a very liberal one, approximate computations indicating a net return of from 14% to about 17%. Reckoning on the basis of dressed beef transported, however, this profit would add but little to the cost of such beef to the consumer, the net profit from the mileage of private cars being computed at not more than 4 cents per hundred pounds of beef or say 25 cents per head of cattle.

The six principal concerns slaughter nearly 98% of all the cattle killed in the eight leading Western packing centers, namely, Chicago, Kansas City, South Omaha, East St. Louis, South St. Joseph, Fort Worth, Sioux City and South St. Paul. They control a very large percentage of the trade in beef in many large cities, particularly in the East. In New York they furnish about 75%; in Boston more than 85%; in Philadelphia about 60%; in Pittsburgh more than 60%. Such cities as Indianapolis, Cleveland and Buffalo obtain only from 10 to 33% of their total beef supply from these six companies. In the Southern States the large packers mentioned generally supply less than half the total beef consumed.

Mr. H. Clay Stone was driving along in his buggy a few days ago and was run into from behind by a runaway team hitched to a sled, which upset his buggy and threw him down between the horses and had him in what appeared to be in the middle of a very bad fix; but he had presence of mind to hold onto his own horse until quieted enough for him to get out of the wreck, somewhat bruised but not seriously. He was fortunate, by the help of several neighbors, in a few minutes to extricate his horse and buggy and harness from the tangle, in a dilapidated condition.

The air is afloot with the cry of condemnation by the Tobacco Growers, occasioned by the sting of disappointment in the success of the Burley Association, followed by reports in print that there was something rotten in Denmark from the beginning of the move. A sad commentary, if said reports be true. Men don't like to be trifled with in so serious a matter, and, as a future consideration, misplaced confidence is not so easily restored. Until further developments we are reminded to say like the child "what is it I want that I don't know what I want?" Mysterious things of these are spoken. Methinks the prevailing prices will cause a general satisfaction if kept up. Why not give the last as much as the first as meant in the parable "The first shall be last and the last first."

Dr. Walter S. Christopher, known Nationally as a specialist in children's diseases, died of heart failure at his home in Chicago, aged 46. He was a brother of Miss Tillie Christopher of Cincinnati, who has been a frequent and pleasant visitor to friends in this city.

PURE BLOOD

NECESSARY TO HEALTH.

Druggist John C. Pecor Guarantees Vinol to Make Pure, Rich, Red Blood.

"We see every day on our streets people whose faces plainly show impure and impoverished blood. We want everybody in Maysville to know that Vinol is a splendid blood purifier and blood maker," said Mr. Pecor.

"Vinol is the best preparation we ever sold in our store to make pure, rich, red blood, because it contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal, body building elements of cod liver oil, but without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach.

"Vinol tones up and strengthens the nerves of the stomach and enables it to obtain from the food eaten the necessary elements to create pure, rich, red blood, and in this way every organ in the body is strengthened and invigorated, and the skin is cleared from all disfiguring eruptions."

Mr. F. W. Bean of Wilmington, Del., writes: "I suffered for months with poor blood, loss of flesh and strength. My physician prescribed different remedies, none of which helped me. I was discouraged when a friend asked me to try Vinol. I did so and never saw anything like it; it purified and enriched my blood, increased my appetite, and I look and feel like a different man."

"We guarantee Vinol will purify and enrich the blood, create strength and build up every run down person in Maysville or stand ready to return the money in every case where it fails."

JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

Miss Cummie Baldwin, daughter of Mr. John Baldwin, died of consumption Saturday night at her home at Murphysville. The interment took place this morning in Shannon Cemetery.

Saturday Mr. Robert Brown had his foot mashed and lacerated by a horse stepping on it. It will be several weeks before he will be able to walk without the aid of crutches.

There were three additions to the Christian Church yesterday morning.

Mr. John Childers, who died Friday night a few hours after being injured by a heavy package falling on him where he was employed in Richmond, Ind., formerly resided in this city. Mr. Henry Rudy, a native of Maysville now living in Covington, married a sister of the deceased. He is a son of Rev. Childers, who at one time was Pastor of Seden Chapel, Forest avenue, now residing in Pineville.

Yesterday being a pretty day the various Churches had good congregations as a consequence.

Mr. Isaac M. Lane of this city had the honor and pleasure of attending the reception and banquet tendered Bishop Henry Spellmeyer by the Methodists of Covington Friday night. Over one hundred sat down to a 6 o'clock dinner. Addresses were delivered after the banquet by Chaplain Nave of Fort Thomas, Rev. W. O. Saddler, Dr. Watkins, Dr. Davis W. Clark, Rev. G. C. Mosher, E. J. Morris, Rev. F. W. Harrop, J. A. Johnson and others. The Lyric Club, consisting of eighteen female voices rendered, "The Garden of Peace" and "Twilight."
